LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will return to legislative session.

HONORING MARY JANE JENKINS OGILVIE

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Res. 110, which was submitted earlier today by Senator KYL.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 110) honoring Mary Jane Jenkins Ogilvie, wife of former Senate Chaplain, Reverend Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. BENNETT. I would like to comment, Mr. President, about Mary Jane Ogilvie. Many public men are described in their own right for their own accomplishments, and then their wives are referred to casually.

Senator Alan Simpson’s wife, who took my wife under her wing when we first came here, described it this way. She said: “We are just LWOs, which means ‘lovely wives of.’”

Mary Jane Ogilvie was indeed the lovely wife of our Chaplain, Lloyd Ogilvie, but she was far, far more than an appendage to her husband. She had her own contribution to make to this body and to all of the Members in it.

Many wives of important men do not want to have anything to do with their husbands’ careers and create areas of their own. They do not have an interest in what their husband does. Mary Jane Ogilvie was an incredibly important part of Lloyd Ogilvie’s entire career.

The two of them were a team, inseparable. Her faith was as strong as his. Her dedication to the ministry and to the Gospel, as they understood it, was as deep as his. And her friendships forged here in the Senate were as strong as his. She was, as I say, an integral part of the ministry he performed here.

When she became too ill to carry on her portion of that ministry, he was unable to carry on his, which was very appropriate, in my view, because they were a team. He had his priorities straight, and he realized that, as important as his work here was, his duty to his wife was even greater.

When it became necessary for her, as she sought to find treatment for her condition, to move to California, there was never a doubt in Lloyd Ogilvie’s mind that he would move with her. They were a team.

Some would have said: Well, she is hospitalized. I have a career. I will stay here. I will call her on weekends or get out there when I can, but I will let her go forward on her own. Lloyd Ogilvie is not that kind of a man, and their marriage was not that kind of a marriage. When she needed him, she had him, which is a manifestation of the fact that when he needed her, he had her.

So this resolution is but a small token of the Senate’s gratitude for the contribution that Mary Jane Ogilvie made to the lives of all of us.

My wife and I were privileged enough to become friends of this team. We went to dinner together. We had conversations about our families. We had conversations about religion. We had
